

TO-MORROW —THE— SALE —OF THE— SEASON.

We have gathered here a collection of all that is good in dry goods. Our modern merchandising way isn't satisfied with waiting for trade, but creates it. We have secured many special values in desirable goods that we can afford to price extra low to stimulate early selling. Not an unworthy specimen in the lot. The quantities are limited. By coming early you will have the choice. The following are striking examples:

Ladies' Capes —AND— JACKETS.

A fine Black Beaver double cape, with three rows satin piping, with full sweep, worth $7. Our price $5.

A better quality Black and Blue Beaver double cape, edged with fur, sold elsewhere at $7.50. We will close them out at $5.

An extra quality Black Beaver cape, with satin facing and three rows satin piping around. Price them anywhere and you'll be told $8.50. Our price $6.

A fine quality Plush Cape, twilled silk lining, collar trimmed with Thibet fur. Would be cheap for $8. Our price $6.50.

A finer quality Plush Cape, a little larger than the above, trimmed with braid and jet, well worth $12.50. You can buy them from us for $10.

Black Beaver Jackets, ripple back, elegant fit, from $3.50 up. You'll save 25 per cent. by calling before making a purchase elsewhere.

Dress Goods.

500 pieces to select from at prices well below the market value. Overstock compels us to unload, and the ladies who have not gotten their new fall dress will profit by buying now.

BUSINESS IS LIVELY

—AT THE— BLANKETS.

Scarce an hour of the business day passes but that some one is buying these good blankets. A price list that covers every purse, and not an unworthy blanket in the lot. All wool, part wool and cotton, although the last two are in the minority. If we tell you that a certain blanket is all wool you can rely on it being so. It isn't always so everywhere.

A BIG CUT IN OUR Millinery Department

Notwithstanding our prices for Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats have been cheaper than any other establishment in the city, we will still make a deeper cut on all our Hats. They must go, and the cheapness of the price is bound to make them move. Call and inspect our stock before making your selection.

CUPID STILL AT WORK.

Two Popular Young Grocery Clerks Become Benedictines.

C. H. Robertson, a popular clerk in the West Salem avenue grocery store of Cigal Bros., left this city Tuesday morning for Jackson, N. C., where he was quietly married to Miss Sarah Alice Warren, a popular young lady of that town, at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday morning at the residence of E. O. Boone.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Harrison, pastor of the Jackson M. E. Church, South, assisted by Rev. N. D. Foushee, of Dinwiddie county. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple took the train for Petersburg, where they visited friends for a day and arrived in this city Thursday evening, when they were driven to Mr. Robertson's home at 360 Seventh avenue s. w., where they will reside.

Greenwood-Carrier.

A more surprising event was the marriage of L. S. Greenwood, another popular clerk of the same establishment, to Miss Carrier, of Marion. Mr. Greenwood left the city on Thursday morning ostensibly to spend Thanksgiving with his best girl, but in reality to go to Bristol.

He had been telegraphed the day before that the father of his intended had very unexpectedly been called away on important business, and as the young lady was not of age the necessary marriage license could not be obtained, as a certificate of consent was needed from the parent.

The young lovers did not intend to be outdone, so they went to Bristol, where they were united in marriage by the Rev. Dr. Heath, and took the first eastbound train, arriving in Roanoke at 10:40 at night of the same day.

As the train passed Marion, the home of the bride, on the return a large number of friends had assembled to greet them. Upon reaching this city they were driven to the home of J. D. Hester at 1604 Second avenue s. w., where they will reside temporarily.

Mr. Greenwood is a popular young man, formerly of Cayo Spring, but for several years a resident of this city. The bride is the daughter of Dr. F. Carrier, a popular business man of Marion. The marriage was a great surprise to the many friends of the young people in this city.

This makes the third marriage which has occurred in which some member or employee of the above named grocery firm was one of the contracting parties.

CALL at Roanoke Cycle Company, 108 Salem avenue s. w., and look at the pictures taken with the Pocket Kodak. Will be glad to show them to you; also the Kodaks. They are worth seeing.

Mrs. W. B. MEEK, who resides at Campville, Cal., says her daughter was for several years troubled at times with severe cramps in the stomach, and would be in such agony that it was necessary to call in a physician. Having read about Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy she concluded to try it. She found that it always gave prompt relief. It was so necessary to give the second dose. "It has not only saved us lots of worry and time," she says, "but also doctor bills. It is my opinion that every family should have a bottle of this remedy in the house." For sale by The Chas. Lyle Drug Company.

THE Roanoke Cycle Company have some fine bargains in second-hand bicycles, and are closing them out at rock bottom prices, $25 and $30. Don't miss this chance to get a bargain. 108 Salem avenue s. w.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT.

An Interesting Game—A Number of Prizes Awarded.

Ludwig for fifty La Flor de Hotel Roanoke cigars; to Thompson & Co., for Lake Side racquet; to Massie's Pharmacy for three pounds of Huyler's candy; to Gilkeson & Child for sweater; to the Bowdrie Shoe Company for pair of tennis shoes; and to the Stone Printing and Manufacturing Company for souvenir badges.

"The Tornado" at the Academy Monday, December 2.

After the first act of "The Tornado" at Havlin's—and a realistic scene it was, one so graphic that it is seldom seen on the local boards—there were many calls of "Author," and in response a young man in shirt sleeves stepped before the curtain. He was breathing heavily, and explained his exhaustion by stating that he had been helping to "work up" the storm scene. Then, in a few brief remarks, he said: "Ladies and Gentlemen: Three years ago I was an unknown and penniless actor, and I was given a chance to produce in this theatre my first play, 'The Fast Mail.' You gave me my first start on the road of success, and I may say that owing to your kindness I am financially independent. Hereafter I will consider this house as the home and starting point of whatever dramas I may write." It may be explained that Lincoln J. Carter, who had the satisfaction of making this speech, is a young Chicagoan, whose Christian name was given him because he was born on the day the martyr President died. He comes of a theatrical family, and has been associated with the stage since infancy. His first work, a melodrama, is now being played by two companies in this country and one in England; and, as the author shares the profits with no one, he may be said to have rung the bell of prosperity at the first shot.—The Tribune, Monday, May 29, 1893.

ALL of W. K. Andrews & Co.'s teams are belled. If you want the best coal and wood in the city and want it delivered promptly buy of them.

ANOTHER TENNESSEE LYNCHING.

Two Negroes En Route to the Pen Hanged by a Mob.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 29.—To-night Joe Robinson and Ozias McGehee, both negroes, were taken from the jail at Fayetteville by a mob composed of people from Lincoln and Marshall counties, and hanged. The negroes had been taken from Nashville to Lewisburg, Marshall county, this morning, for attempted rape, convicted and sentenced to the full penalty of imprisonment for life, and a train had been held to take them to this city.

Enroute at Fayetteville in an adjoining county, sympathizers met and formed into a mob, side-tracked the train and got possession of the prisoners. Governor Turney received a telegram from the sheriff calling for troops and one hundred of the State guard were speedily under arms and at the station ready to leave at 9 o'clock. At 8:15 a telephone message was received stating that the prisoners had been lynched.

Georgia Central Bonds.

AYER'S PILLS

"I would like to add my testimony to that of others who have used Ayer's Pills, and to say that I have taken them for many years, and always derived the best results from their use. For stomach and liver troubles, and for the cure of headache caused by these derangements, Ayer's Pills cannot be equalled."

When my friends ask me what is the best remedy for disorders of the stomach, liver, or bowels, my invariable answer is, Ayer's Pills. Taken in season, they will break up a cold, prevent a gripe, check fever, and regulate the digestive organs. They are easy to take, and are, indeed, the best all-round family medicine I have ever known."—Mrs. May Johnson, 363 Rider Avenue, New York City.
